

APPLICATION FOR FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE - INDIVIDUAL

The Union for Progressive Judaism has a limited number of grants and subsidies available to members of UPJ affiliated congregations (including provisional UPJ member congregations) to attend programs which further their leadership or other personal development, and enhance their contribution to their home congregation. If you are interested in being considered for a grant or subsidy, please complete this application.

NAME
MAILING ADDRESS
EMAIL
TELEPHONE
CONGREGATION
NAME OF PROGRAM
DATE OF PROGRAM
LOCATION OF PROGRAM
COST OF PROGRAM
All applicants are expected to cover a portion of the expenses personally
Describe your personal involvement within your congregation
Why do you want to participate in this program? What benefits do you expect to bring back to your congregation as a result of attending?
Other relevant information

I understand that this application does not automatically qualify me to receive a grant or subsidy from the Union for Progressive Judaism.

I understand that, should I receive a grant or subsidy, I will supply to the UPJ a report of the benefits to me and my congregation.

Participants in the Beutel Seminar are additionally expected to report on how they will share the benefits of their experience with others in the region.

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Return this form to:
Union for Progressive Judaism
PO Box 367, Botany, NSW, 1455
upj@upj.org.au