The Union for Progressive Judaism has a limited number of grants available to UPJ affiliated congregations (including UPJ provisional member congregations) or related Progressive organisations in the UPJ region to support programs which further the objects of the UPJ (see page 3, extract from the UPJ Constitution).

If you are interested in your congregation or organisation being considered for a grant, please complete this application.

Please describe the program and its relevance to the objects of the UPJ (see page 3)
Who will participate in this program (e.g. congregational members, youth, etc)?
What are the expected benefits of this program to your congregation/ organisation?

I understand that this application does not automatically qualify my congregation/organisation to receive a grant from the Union for Progressive Judaism.

I understand that, should my congregation receive a grant, we will supply to the UPJ a report on the event and if/how the expected benefits were realised. This could include writing an article to be shared with other congregations/organisations.
